 - o Aussie Rules
 - o Football
 - Backyard Cricket
 - Giant Jenga
- Setting up and preparing the children's activities areas, ensuring stocked with plenty of sunscreen and water for all.
- Supervising children and overseeing games/activities to ensure all children are kept safe and enjoy themselves.
- Remembering to offer children copious water and sunscreen throughout the day.
- Maintaining a tidy and hazard-free area throughout the event.
- Disallowing removal of any of the games equipment.
- Reporting all incidents and near-misses to the Games Supervisor, no matter how small.
- Referring any medical situations to the St. John's Ambulance First Aid station outside.
- Referring any unsafe situations to Security.
- Eating lunch! Just check time with your Games Team Supervisor, collecting from the Food & Beverage Supervisor.
- Packing up the games equipment as instructed (approximately 2:00pm).
- Enjoying the day and sharing that joy with others!

Please note that inside the marquee there are additional (separate) activity stations – Face Painting and Drawing

Your brief

The sporty, "up and at 'em" Games Team comprises a team of 6 energetic and enthusiastic kids-at-heart, who'll work to ensure the utmost pleasure of our most special guests – Christmas is a day for the kids after all. Entertainment includes a range of outdoor sports such as cricket and football, with other games and activities on offer throughout the day.

Arriving onsite

Please arrive onsite at your allocated time and register yourself at the Volunteer Concierge. Here you will collect your lanyard before reporting to the Games Supervisor for briefing.
